

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2692 - SB 2736

February 11, 2004

SUMMARY OF BILL: Increases the maximum number of members on a municipal planning commission from 10 to 12.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase Local Govt. Expenditures - Not Significant/Permissive

Estimate assumes that to the extent a municipality chooses to increase the number of members on the planning commission as provided in the bill, it will experience an increase in expenditures for reimbursement of travel expenses, training costs, continuing education costs, or other compensation received by additional members that the municipal legislative body is currently authorized to determine.
